Eryka Jones, Junior.

"My song choices are all over the place! It varies from the Arctic Monkeys and The Kooks to stuff like Stevie Wonder and Bob Marley & The Wailers. I actually have a surprisingly mellow song choice compared to my personality..."

A self-described "intelligent system that can automatically decode every truly musical property in every song," and available on iOS, Android, Blackberry and Windows, Moodagent is an emotion-based playlist generator. Rather than gauging personality or taste by what you choose for your iPod, let your iPod choose music that suits you and your moment.
